

131 Varick Street Suite 937
New York, NY 10013

tel: 212 229-2260
fax: 212 229-1133

info@vantageartists.com
www.vantageartists.com

TRIO SOLISTI

Maria Bachmann, violin; Alexis Pia Gerlach, cello; Jon Klibonoff, piano

Three sensational musicians, Maria Bachmann, Alexis Pia Gerlach, and Jon Klibonoff, join together as Trio Solisti to create performances that have thrilled audiences across America. The New York Times has described Trio Solisti as "...compelling and consistently brilliant." The Washington Post said of their debut at Wolf Trap, "Trio Solisti dove into this music's (Brahms C major trio) with unrelenting passion and zealous abandon, poignantly attending to the work's restless dissonances with a knowing grasp of its tightly interwoven counterpoint. At times, zeal gave way to tender lyricism in a transcendent performance."

Trio Solisti's two debut recordings, both released in 2005, are an all Brahms CD for Marquis Classics, and a CD of music by Paul Moravec for the Arabesque label which includes World Premier recordings of Moravec's 2004 Pulitzer prize winning work composed for Trio Solisti, Tempest Fantasy with guest clarinetist David Krakauer, and Mood Swings for piano trio. In 2003, a documentary video, "Trio Solisti Explores Beethoven", was released by the Films for Humanities and Sciences (www.films.com). Academy Award nominated director Josh Aronson's video traces the trio's interpretive decision making in rehearsals, and performances of Beethoven's masterworks, the "Ghost" and "Archduke" trios. For info on their DVD, CDs, concert schedule and more, go to: www.triosolisti.com

Trio Solisti has made critically acclaimed debut performances at Kennedy Center's Terrace Theater, The Wolf Trap Center for the Performing Arts, on Lincoln Center's Great Performers Series at The Walter Reade Theater, at Town Hall in New York City for the People's Symphony Concerts, and at The Tuscan Sun Festival in Cortona, Italy. Highlights of the 2006-07 season include debuts at The Caramoor and Moab Festivals, concerts at the Maverick and Cooperstown festivals, and performances in Canada, New York, Atlanta, Portland, OR, and tours of the West Coast and Southern US.

The Trio has appeared on the nationally broadcast radio show "St Paul Sunday", and has been featured by NPR's "Performance Today" in live performances from around the US. They have been presented in multi concert series by The Morgan Library in New York City, by The St. Louis Museum of Art, and 2006-07 marks their 5th year in residence at Adelphi University in NY. Trio Solisti is the founding ensemble of Telluride MusicFest which celebrates its 4th season in summer 2006. The Trio has also performed at Seattle's Meany Hall, La Jolla's Revelle series, Milwaukee Symphony's Pabst Series, Troy Chromatic Concerts, Weill Hall at Carnegie Hall, and with The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center.